Press Release

Mayan Luxury Group wins another year at the World Luxury Spa Awards

On October 28, 2023, the 17th edition of the annual World Luxury Spa Awards was held. The WLSA, are the pinnacle of achievement in the Luxury Spa sector offering international recognition in the wellness industry. For 4 weeks more than 250,000 international travelers and industry players have been voting in the different categories to choose the winners. This year, Manuel De la Garza (CEO & Founder) and Antonella Romano (Executive Director of Operations) traveled to the Grand Hyatt Athens in Greece, the place chosen to celebrate this luxurious event.

We are proud to announce that our centers have once again been awarded in the following categories:

Mayan Luxury Spa (Hotel Palace Barcelona 5*GL)

Best Luxury Spa Group in Europe

Mayan Secret Spa (Hotel Claris & Spa 5*GL)

Best Luxury Historical Hotel Spa - Global Winner

In addition, this year we have received the most special award to date, Antonella Romano, Executive Director of Operations of Mayan Luxury Group has been awarded as "Best Spa Manager" in the world. A very special award that highlights all the effort dedicated during all these years in the group.

Among all the treatments available for those who appreciate relaxation, beauty and wellness, we highly recommend the following:

Mayan Tribute Massage: Treatment created by Manuel De la Garza, pays homage to his great-grandfather K'inam Canek, Priest of the "House of the Sun". Relaxing massage performed by Planos SAGITALES that bases the treatment on applying techniques dividing the human body by its axis, working by hemispheres and connecting the different points of the body from north to south.

Intensive Cryotherapy Luxury: Intensive face and neck treatment tailored to each client with Cryotherapy Ice Cubes by Anne Semonin. Aromatic intensive complexes and serums will stimulate cell renewal while a firming and detoxifying algae mask will leave your skin radiant. An effective and complete remedy against the effects of stress.

These awards are a true recognition that reflect the daily hard work and constant dedication of the entire Mayan Spas team.
